

REV. DR. NEWMAN WILL STAY.

We announced that he had declined the presidency of Marietta College.

The members of the First Congregational Church who attended the annual weekly prayer meeting last evening were gratified to hear their pastor, Rev. Dr. Newman, announce that he had declined the call which he had recently received to the presidency of Marietta College, Ohio. He spoke of the generosity displayed toward him by the congregation in the provision made so that he could enjoy a longer vacation than usual this year and each year thereafter. After the meeting Dr. Newman left quite a reception and was assured that his decision was pleasing to the members of the congregation.

THIRTEEN IN THE DOCK.

A Light Docket in the Police Court This Morning.

The severity of the storm last night made business dull in police circles. Those who are habitual violators of the law preferred to remain in their homes last night instead of appearing on the streets and rendering themselves liable to suffer from the effects of the storm in addition to their chance of getting behind the bars before the close of the night. This morning there were only thirteen prisoners brought to the Police Court from the nine police stations. In Judge Kimball's court a majority of the unlucky number appeared in the first procession for trial.

Frank C. Carter, a colored man, was one of the number, and there were two charges against him. One charge was that of carrying a pistol, while the other was disorderly conduct. The officers were alleged have occurred on M street, and Carter demanded a jury trial, which was fixed at $300, and Frank was committed for trial.

Another colored citizen named Edward Leaumont was brought from South Washington on a charge of carrying a pistol on G street, and he, too, demanded a jury trial.

Carter wanted to go to the work house during the bad weather, and the judge gave him ten days in default of bonds.

"Guilty," replied William Williams when asked if Carter would stand trial, and his sentence was thirty days of the form.

Edward Webster, a neatly dressed colored man, was given a hearing on a charge of destroying private property. He left his wife and two children at home, and when he returned her last night she refused to open her door. He broke open the door and hence his arrest. The judge taxed him $5.

Arthur Tyson, colored, admitted his guilt when charged with disorderly conduct, and the fine was imposed.

Two boys, Edward Norris and Harry Hood, were tried on a charge of throwing stones in the Capitol grounds. The former was fined $2 and the latter personal bonds were taken.

Frank Carter changed his mind and said he wanted a trial. Carter is a messenger at the District Building, and last night when he was arrested he was under the influence of liquor. He claimed that he did not know how the pistol got in his pocket. A fine of $50 was imposed.

ALEXANDRIA.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS TO VISIT WASHINGTON.

Lodging Camp of Confederate Veterans of this city will pay a visit to Washington tonight.

The camp has been invited to the Confederate Veterans' Association of Washington to hold its annual meeting here on Friday evening, a division of the army of the confederate states. The veterans will leave here on the 7-65 train and will return at a late hour.

EXAMINATION INTO CHARGES.

Charges of seduction, &c., made in Baltimore against a young evangelist who has recently been conducting revival services here are said to be false, but they will be examined by a committee of the church and the truth or falsity of the charges ascertained, with a view to action in the matter.

NOTES.

The funeral of Mr. J. B. Stoughton took place this morning with a requiem mass at St. Mary's Church, and was attended by the Catholic Society.

The St. Patrick's night entertainment at the Catholic Lycenm Hall last night was well attended, and Rev. Father Chester, S. J., of Georgetown, delivered an instructive address upon the life of St. Patrick.

Miss T. L. Smith, age 17, died yesterday for $600 from Mrs. Mary C. Smith a frame house old on Patric near Queen street.

The city street committee agreed last night with the Pennsylvania railroad authorities for the lighting of Head street, three blocks in 1861, and three blocks in 1866, provided the lights are allowed to remain.

Ex-Tax Collector S. K. Field died last night about 2 o'clock this morning of a stroke of paralysis.

The Death Record.

During the twenty-four hours ending at noon today burial permits were issued for the following:

White—Frank Wahler, 84 years, asthenia; Geo. G. Cornell, 71 years, Bright's disease; Frances Vitali, 66 years, heart disease; John R. Lucket, sr., 44 years, asthenia; Mary E. Parker, 22 years, rheumatic fever; Clarence O. Tanner, 6 months, pneumonia.

Colored—Samuel Robeson, 5 months, pneumonia; Nellie Lampert, 1 month, catarrhal bronchitis; George Lewis, 2 years, capillary hematuria; Alberta Lee, 22 years, phthisis.

Old Fellow's Fraternal Visit.

Notwithstanding the exceedingly inclement weather last night Independence Lodge, No. 77, of Baltimore, L. O. O. F., kept the engagement made with Federal City Lodge, No. 29, L.O.O.F. They arrived in the city at about 7:30 and were escorted to the hall by the members of Federal City, Canton, Potomac, under command of Capt. Shattockford, who acted as the escort. Grand Master H. C. Hazard introduced the visitors in a few well-chosen remarks, to which Noble Grand Robt. Wood appropriately responded. The members of the lodge second degree were then conferred upon several candidates. A dinner followed, during which there was the usual "feast of reason and good fellowship." Refreshments were served in honor of the guests.
